

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH SEEKS MINISTER

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH

Salt Lake City is a vibrant, young city that offers a great variety of outdoor activities as well as many opportunities to enjoy music, dance, and theatre. The city is home to colleges and universities, museums, good schools and hospitals, and professional sports teams.

As we make plans to sell our current building and move to a new home, First Congregational Church wants to honor our 157-year-old history and the foundation that it has given us. We hope to build on our past and continue to be a Christian presence in the Salt Lake Valley. We look forward to moving in new directions, free from the financial burdens and responsibilities a large building requires.

Will you be the one to join us and guide us on our faith journey as we continue to be a welcoming faith community of love, tolerance, and inclusiveness?

The core of our ministry is worship. We are seeking a Minister who is:

- An articulate and dynamic speaker providing thought-provoking sermons that relate to our modern life
- Able to provide opportunities to explore our faith outside of Sunday worship such as Bible Study and book groups
- Able to embrace a theologically diverse congregation whose members value individual judgement on matters of belief and Bible
- Caring, compassionate, and comfortable helping members through immediate health issues and life transitions
- Strong in pastoral leadership to help us envision new ways to engage with our community and encourage congregational participation
- Willing to work with people of other faiths and help us connect with the interfaith community
- Willing to work with lay leadership
- Able to provide vision and new ideas to help us develop a sustainable future

First Congregational Church is a member of the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches. Additional church information is available at nacc.org.
